

Name of School: Lyceum named after academician Zarifa Aliyeva

Location: Baku, Azerbaijan

School's Website: www.z-aliyeva.edu.az

About the school:

The only high school in Baku where students get enrolled on merit based selection (unlike all the rest comprehensive secondary schools). The classes are split according to the future majors at university, the faculty is made up of dedicated teachers committed to their work which makes students compete for the limited seats in the classes. The school ranks the 2nd among all Baku schools.

Additional comments about your school: Small, friendly staff and student body which makes the atmosphere very warm and close. The education is in 2 languages: Russian and Azerbaijani. A lot of students are quite strong in English and aim at entering universities in Europe, USA and Canada.
