

JRC012209 – Mock Trial: NYC Competition – $750.00

The JRC provides high schools with the opportunity to participate in the citywide component of the New York State Bar Association’s statewide Mock Trial competition. Teams of 8-12 students will compete at least twice in a multiple-elimination round tournament. Schools will be assigned a lawyer-coach who has been admitted to the NYS Bar. Teachers will be afforded the opportunity to participate in a professional development and informational session. The case will be provided to each school. All students are invited to observe the final round of the competition and student party. All rounds take place after school hours. School teams must have a designated teacher-coach. A team can be from a designated course, or an after-school program.

The top two teams will travel to Albany to participate in the final rounds of the statewide tournament.
